Course Equivalency Guide Tutorial

“Equivalency by School”

The “Search Equivalency by School” function can be used to see all University at Buffalo course and requirement equivalencies for a specific transfer school. Please follow the instructions to help you better navigate these equivalencies.

1. On the TAURUS main page, select the “Search Equivalency by School” button.

2. Select in the field where it says “Enter School Here...”, type the name of the transfer institution you want to view course equivalencies for. You will notice your selections populating below the search field as you type. You will want to select the appropriate school from that list, then press the “SEARCH” button.

NOTE: It is advised to use partial school names. The use of full school names means you must enter them exactly as they are in our system.

- ex. SUNY Erie Community College -> Erie
St. John’s University -> John
Mount Saint Mary’s University -> Mar

3. All articulations for the transfer institution you searched will appear in alphabetical order by the transfer course in the first column, under the name of the transfer institution. The arrow symbol next to the transfer institution's name can be selected to reverse- alphabetize the list of equivalencies.

If a transfer course you are looking for does not appear in the TAURUS Course Equivalency Guide, this means that it may have never been reviewed by the appropriate academic department at the University at Buffalo. In a case such as this, please go to the "Articulation Request Process" section on the TAURUS webpage and read the directions on how to submit a course articulation request. Please read the CAUTIONS associated with searching transfer equivalencies in TAURUS, as there are disclaimers that are important for the general public to be aware of.
